The subscription year runs annually to 31st March. The attached subscription form for the year to 31st March 2009 sets out the subscription payable for the various categories of membership.

The application should be completed and returned addressed to Sheila Jamieson at the club. We ask that if you do know any Club Members who would act as a proposer for your application that you complete the relevant section. However, if you do not have any contacts at the Club – do not worry. All memberships are put forward to the Management Committee for approval and you will hear back from the Club shortly after submitting your application. Please note that all new Members are required to pay the one off joining fee applicable to their category of membership.

Tennis / Squash participation welcome at all standards from beginner to first team player!
